About the engagement

KPMG Corporate Finance LLC (KPMG CF) acted as the exclusive financial advisor to Ironclad Energy Partners, LLC (“Ironclad”) in the sale of a portfolio of energy projects to DCO Energy, LLC. The portfolio consisted of three projects that provide electricity, steam, hot water, and thermal energy to industrial customers.

Ironclad is a privately-owned business that is funded by Stonepeak Infrastructure Partners, an investment firm that manages over $7 billion in energy and infrastructure assets.

The portfolio was sold to generate liquidity in a market where buyers place a premium on long-term contracted cash flows, and the industry is trending toward distributed generation and energy efficiency projects.

DCO Energy, LLC is an independent energy company specializing in the development, engineering, construction, start-up, commissioning, operation and maintenance, management, and ownership of energy assets.
